HOUSE OF HIATUS - BATHROBES

All House of Hiatus products are made of natural materials, sourced in the United States, and sewn by a family owned business in Los Angeles. In addition to their signature cotton/linen line, they offer robes made of deadstock fabric. In addition to their sustainability practices, they donate hotel robes that are at the end of their life to LA based Downtown Women's Center where they are up-cycled for use in their housing and job training programs.
